PARADE OF THE WHITE SHIPS

Chicago Leads the Squadron Around the Battery.

Newark Fouls Her Cables and Is Delayed in Starting.

The grand parade of the beautiful White Island, was drowned last night while swim-squadron from its anchorage in the North cramps. River, around the Battery and up the East River and Long Island Sound, was somewhat marred this morning by an accident to the Newark.

Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning the signals were hotsted on Admiral Walker's flagship, the Chicago, for the start.

The Chicago got under way at 10.30 and started down the river, preceded by the police boat Patrol, which kept the channel clear.

The torpedo-boat Cushing, acting as Admiral Walker's despatch boat, was sent back to of Custom-House employees had yet been ascertain what was the trouble with the Newark, while the Chicago waited off Four-Oppesit the Navy-Yard the flagship was saluted from the battery on the Cob Dock.

At that hour the Newark was still foul of her moorings, and the Atlants, Concord and Cushing were with her to form a second squadron and another procession.
The vessels are bound to Fisher's Island, in Long Island Sound, where they will indulge in drill and evolutions, which will be participated in by the battalion of New York State Navai Militia.

At 1.30 the Concord had passed down the river, but the Newark was still unable to get away from her cable.
